SAFETY

Innovative Building Solutions Since 1932.

Mazza Mechanical Services is focused on providing a work force culture that instills the importance of safety in all of our people, no matter their role.

It is based on the principle that:

Safety is Everyone's Responsibility!

"Our core values start with safety.

At Mazza, safety is integrated into all aspects of our business.

We are committed to promoting a health and safety first culture through employee involvement to obtain an accident-free work environment while driving continuous improvement beyond the highest standard of compliance."

We believe that:

- Each member of our organization, from management on down, is responsible for preventing incidents, injuries, and occupational illnesses.
- Providing on-going safety education and training for all employees is essential to our business.
- Safety is a central, not a peripheral, business management issue.
- Incidents and injuries can be prevented and all workplace hazards can be controlled.
